OFFICE ORDER

SUBJECT: The order dated 26th February 2016 passed by the Division Bench of Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in MAT 119 of 2016, CAN 843 of 2016, COT No. 04 of 2016 in the case of Sayak Ghosh Vs. Union of India and Ors. (Ragging Case).

With reference to the above subject matter, the Disciplinary Committee, after taking depositions from the nine accused, the complainant and others, has submitted its final report. Based on the above, the following order is hereby passed:-

1. Vth Semester Results will be published, for all the nine accused students. If any one of them gets a supplementary in the Vth semester examination 2015-16, he will be permitted to sit for a 'Special Supplementary Examination'. Necessary arrangements may be made by the Institute (Examination Section).
2. Jeet Karmakar (13/CS/08) is 'reprimanded' for being present during the incident but not making any efforts to pacify his friends and defuse the situation. He is permitted to stay in the hostel and sit for the VIth semester regular examination 2015-16.
3. Six students, namely Subhadeep Das (13/MM/27), Akash Chakraborty (13/EC/54), Upamanyu Shaha (13/CH/03), Ranit Saha (13/ME/118), Sayan Dutta (13/ME/054) and Sayak Ghosh (13/MM/36), are debarred from sitting in the regular VIth semester examination 2015-16. They are however permitted to stay in the hostel and are allowed to appear for the VIth Semester Supplementary Examination 2015-16.
4. Aniket Mukherjee (13/MM/40) and Prajit Sarkar (13/IT/64) are debarred from sitting in the regular VIth Semester Examination 2015-16. They are not permitted to stay in the hostel. They are however allowed to appear for the VIth Semester Supplementary Examination 2015-16, and a fine of Rs. 10000/- each is imposed on them. The above amount is to be deposited to the 'Student Aid Fund' before they appear for the Supplementary Examination 2015-16
5. Tanmoy Gosh, presently a IVth semester student of Chemical Engineering Department and a boarder of Hall-1, is 'reprimanded' for not appearing before the committee, for his non cooperation, and for suppressing the facts.

The Final Report is attached with this order.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
