NOTIFICATION

No.NITD/SLA/TEQIP III/2017

Date: 15.11.2017

As desired by the MHRD, Govt. of India, the National Project Implementation Unit (NPIU), in collaboration with Stanford University, is implementing a large-scale program to assess and improve the skills of engineering students in India under TEQIP-III to enhance the quality and equity of engineering education across India.

The assessment/survey will be for 1st year (2016-17) and 3rd year (2017-18) students of Electrical and Computer Science and IT students of the Institute and there will a faculty survey for teachers who have taken classes for these students. This assessment/survey is mandatory for MHRD Institutes for Engineering.

While a student's performance on the assessment is strictly confidential and will not be shared with anyone else, the Stanford team will provide students with individualized report cards. The report from Stanford University will include their score and ranking on the assessment (ranking compared to other students in India and also compared to students in other participating countries).
