An address to the students

Dear students,

Wishing you all the best in the ensuing even semester examination. However, keeping an eye over the past few irregular/immoral activities by a handful students, I appeal to all of you to refrain yourselves from any indiscipline in the hostel and academic activities and ensure not to compel us to take any harsh decision against anyone of you. In case of any guidance, your wardens and teachers are always there to extend their helping hands wherever possible. We wish you to live in an atmosphere of healthy culture and enjoy your student-life; obviously, it is impossible to achieve without your whole-hearted active cooperation.

Again, with the best wishes for the coming days to all of you with a special bias to the final year UG and PG students.
