

PAPER DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

on 29.05.2022.

Organised by

Department of Management Studies
National Institute of Technology Durgapur

About the Workshop: Research scholars, faculty members or practitioners find it difficult to write and prepare a complete paper of their interest for publication in a journal or to present in a conference. Therefore, the objective of this workshop is to provide constructive feedback to their respective papers which are in different stages of completion so that the paper could be developed further and can be published in journals.

For Whom: Research scholars, faculty members or practitioners.
