Invites Application for Admission to Language Courses

About the Institute:

The National Institute of Technology Durgapur was established by an Act of Parliament in 1960 as one of the eight such Institutes aimed at functioning as a pace-setter for engineering education in the country and to foster national integration. It is a fully funded premier Institute of National Importance under the MHRD, Government of India and administered by an autonomous Board of Governors. The Institute is a University which awards UG, PG, and Doctoral Degrees. The Institute is going to offer various self-financed language courses under the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences.

About the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences:

Since the inception of the Institute, the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) has been catering its service to all the students of UG, PG and PhD Courses. Besides teaching, the faculty members are actively engaged in research activities in the fields of Economics, Management and English Literature. The faculty members and research scholars of the Department have, to their credit, a large number of research papers in reputed national and international indexed journals. The Department regularly engages with different kinds of academic, research and social activities.

Strength of the Department:

- Focused and Dedicated Teachers with Social Commitments.
- Global Focus on interlinking Technology and Social Science.
- Strong Desire to accommodate the evolving needs.

Language Course (Three-Month Certificate course in Different Languages): Open to All

In the perspective of growing and diversified international business emerging through globalization, where India is projected as among the most potential players (within and outside BRICS domain), the budding corporate managers need to be groomed through the in-depth knowledge and culture of some languages. In this direction, proficiency in three major foreign languages, namely, Chinese, Japanese and French along with the root of many languages, i.e., Sanskrit has become imperative to enhance the competitiveness of the job seekers in the global market. In this backdrop, the Institute offers different Language Courses as outlined below.
