Workshop on

Women in India : Issues at Workplace

August 18-19, 2018

Organised by :

National Institute of Technology
Durgapur

INTRODUCTION

“The Hand That Rocks the Cradle Is the Hand That Rules the World” - This phrase is in danger as Women are subject to hate based attacks , sexual assaults and are becoming easy targets of violence and abuse. It is the time to break the silence on injustices against lives and liberty of women. Along the backdrop of this zeitgeist, the workshop will consider reflecting the women's issues across the legal, psychological and moral perspectives. The discussion on the cluster of various prevention and redressal techniques will equip the participants to acknowledge the problems and deal with them in an effective manner so as to facilitate the smooth performance of the women in their place of work.

BROAD OBJECTIVES

The participants will gain information on:

1. The nature and diversity of problems that women face in the workplace.
2. The psychological aspects of these issues and the nature and consequences of responses in dealing with the situation.
3. The legal aspects considering the provisions of different women related acts, laws governing the workplace and the prevention and redressal techniques associated with them.
4. The ethos and moral values within the ethical matrix to enhance sensitization towards these issues.

PARTICIPANTS

Any individual interested in getting an insight in the topic of the workshop.
